

SIDE EFFECTS:

These following adverse reactions are generally and commonly reported tend to occur during or after dose escalation. Seek immediate medical attention if any of the following occur.

Common Adverse Reactions

- Nausea
- Vomiting
- Diarrhoea
- Constipation
- Abdominal distension
- Fatigue
- Headache
- Injection-site reactions (including erythema and pruritus)

Serious Adverse Reactions

- Symptoms suggestive of pancreatitis, including severe and persistent abdominal pain, which may radiate to the back.
- Signs of a serious hypersensitivity reaction, such as swelling of the face, lips, tongue, or throat; difficulty breathing; or widespread rash.
- Severe or persistent gastrointestinal symptoms that may lead to dehydration.
- Clinically significant tachycardia or palpitations.